

WEEKLY INTERNSHIP ACTIVITIES & ASSIGNMENT 9

ACTIVITY:

Title: Understanding What Makes a Game

Description: Interns will explore the definition, characteristics, and examples of games vs non-games, along with basic roles in game development.

Objectives:

- Define what a game is
- Identify key characteristics (rules, goals, interaction)
- Understand roles like designer and programmer

Problem Statement: List 10 UX elements and 10 UI elements from selected website.

Methodologies:

- Conceptual research
- Comparative analysis
- Example identification

Reference/Source Code/Links:

- Introductory game design articles
- YouTube: “What is a Game?” \(basic explainer videos\)

Deliverable:

- Table: Game vs Non-game examples (at least 5 each)
 - Short write-up (300 words) on game characteristics
-

ASSIGNMENT:

Title: Designing Game Mechanics System

Description: Interns will design a complete set of mechanics for their game idea.

Methodologies:

- System design
- Gameplay modeling
- Logical structuring

Objectives:

- Define core mechanics
- Connect mechanics with player experience
- Balance gameplay elements

Reference/Source Code/Links:

- Game mechanics design articles
- Popular game breakdowns

Deliverables / File Types

- Mechanics document
- Flow of gameplay interactions